-58 West Market St.,
Newark, N. J.

May 14, 1934.

The Executive Committee of the New Jersey Urban League met on the above date at 58 West Market Street.

Present:

Mrs. Alexander	Dr. Bell
Mr. Beckett	Mr. Brooks
Mrs. Darden	Mr. Gilmore
Mr. Hudspeth	Dr. Parks
Mr. Powell	Miss Shepard
Mrs. Wolfe

Minutes of last meeting read and upon motion by Mr. Hudspeth, accepted.

Treasurer's report read by secretary and upon motion by Miss Shepard, accepted.

Bank Balance as of May 1st.....	$863.70
Thrift Account.....	.73
Obligations.....	581.58

It was explained that insurance covering personal property, compensation and landlord's liability could be secured for the League Building for $45.00.

At this time, due to other business, the chairman was obliged to leave. Rev. Garner took the chair.

Miss Simkins in her report stated that the scholarship committee which started Beatrice Burton in Bordentown would become permanent and keep her there. Miss Simkins spends two and a half days in Children's Court and is working with four cases now; so far, twenty-two cases have been taken care of through several agencies.

In his report, Mr. Lett stated that he had attended twenty-one meetings to learn the community; he had given eight talks reaching 700 persons. Mr. Lett has made a check on the Emergency Relief Activities and found that in plans for the future, there is no place for the Negro. Among the thirty supervisors of white-collar worker. Among the thirty supervisors of the Housing Survey, there is not one Negro. Negroes should be in administrative offices, State, County and City, so that Negroes might know of projects just as soon as they are started. Mr. Mett submitted to Mr. Colt his complaint and recommendation. Mr. Colt is in favor of and Industrial Survey.

Mr. Mett discovered that the rumor that Negro elevator operators were being removed from Hahne's was unfounded.

Mr. Lester B. Granger, the only Negro representative on the Advisory Board of the Newark Housing Association, offered to withdraw in favor of the Executive Secretary of the League. It seemed unnecessary to accept this offer.

The Secretary read an article in New York Times of Apr. 14 which explained the St. Louis Plan of Vertical Organization which has been endorsed by the National Urban League. Under the N. I. R. A. the A. F. L. gets nearly all the recognition.

After a short discussion to the above, the meeting was adjourned.

Mr. A. H. Ormond, President

U. M. Janifer, Secretary.
